

The Wheelock Piano

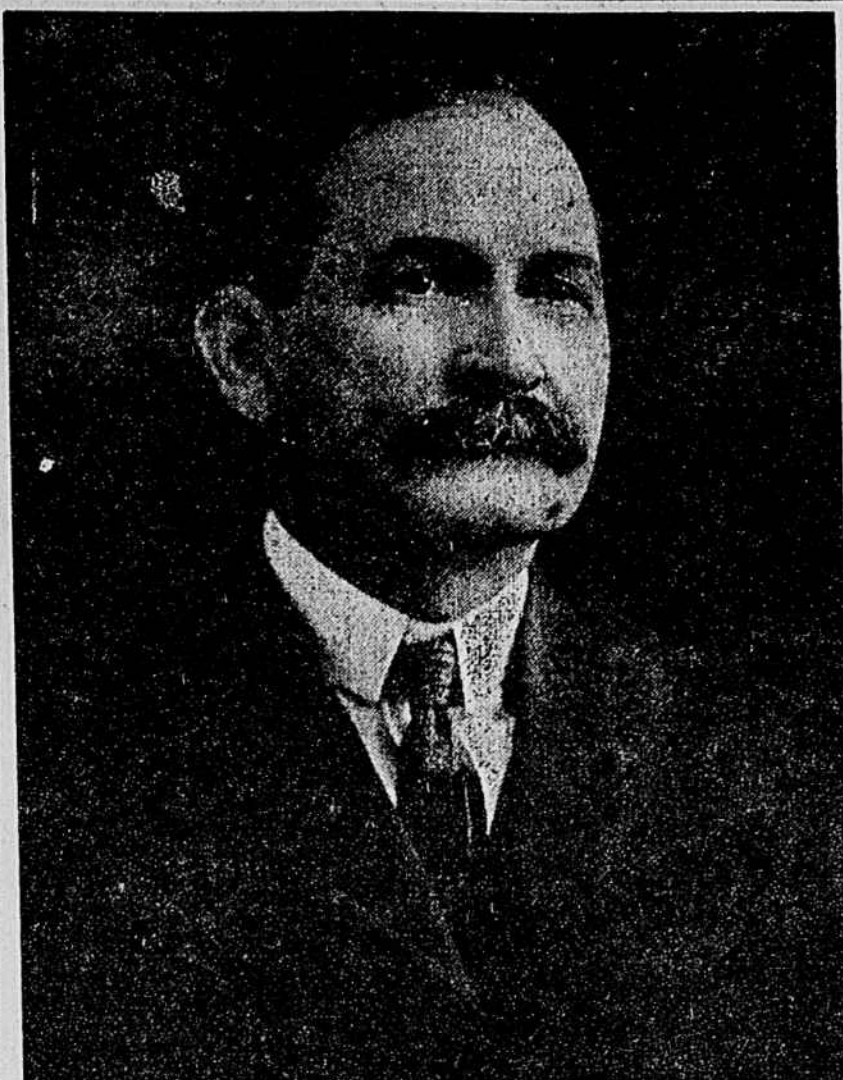

Is characterized by a sweet, full, resonant tone. No other instrument at its price has the full, strong, profound bass-tones of the Wheelock. These furnish a combination with its brilliant golden treble that has won for the Wheelock the instant preference of discriminating musicians. It is a pleasure to play the Wheelock as well as listen to it.

The nomination of Judge Kelly was made unanimous, and after approving the appointment of Colonel Littleton Waller as major-general of the marine corps and petitioning that it be confirmed, the caucus adjourned at 1:45 o'clock.

For Relief of Bulgarians.

Washington, January 21.—The American Red Cross received a telegram from the secretary of the Rockefeller Foundation to-day appropriating $10,000 to be expended through the Red Cross for the relief of the suffering in Bulgaria. The officials said the money would be promptly cabled to the Central Relief Committee in Bulgaria to-morrow morning.

Drop Fulton on Second.

Mr. Fulton was dropped after the first ballot, and the second stood: Burns, 3; Hutton, 19; Kelly, 21; Sims, 28; Staples, 17; West, 35.

Judge Burns was dropped, and the third ballot resulted: Hutton, 22; Kelly, 20; Sims, 24; Staples, 20; West, 35.

Messrs. Kelly and Staples were tied, and no one was dropped, and the fourth ballot stood: Hutton, 22; Kelly, 25; Sims, 24; Staples, 18; West, 36.

Under the rules, a candidate might be renominated after an intervening ballot, and the issue was seen-sawed for several ballots.

Fifth ballot: Hutton, 27; Kelly, 30; Sims, 26; West, 42.

Sixth ballot: Hutton, 26; Kelly, 34; West, 42; Staples, 24.

Seventh ballot: Hutton, 27; Kelly, 33; Sims, 28; West, 37.

Judge Staples was dropped and Judge Sims renominated and then dropped as the lowest candidate and the others put back in nomination, with no prospect for hours of breaking the deadlock.

The eighth ballot, with E. M. Fulton renominated, resulted: Sims, 27; Kelly, 47; West, 46; Fulton, 5.

Expected to Stay All Night.

Judge Fulton was dropped, and Messrs. Burns and Hutton renominated. Mr. Gregory proposed to amend the rules to prevent renominations, but the motion was rejected, several members announcing that they expected to settle the matter at one session if it took all night.

The ninth ballot resulted: Burns, 5; Hutton, 24; Kelly, 31; Sims, 26; West, 37. Judge Burns was dropped, and the tenth ballot resulted: Hutton, 23; Kelly, 35; Sims, 29; West, 38.

Judge Hutton was dropped, the body refused to adjourn, and the roll was called as between Messrs. Kelly, Sims and West, the end being apparently in sight. The eleventh ballot resulted: Kelly, 47; Sims, 30; West, 47. Judge Sims was dropped, and Mr. Stearnes moved to adjourn, which was rejected.

After 48 votes, 66, Mr. Featherston renominated Judge Kelly, and the twelfth ballot resulted: Kelly, 50; West, 43; Staples, 21.

The Final Ballot.

It was evident that the fight had to be finally between Kelly and West—the far Southwest and the Tidewater section, and the thirteenth ballot was between those two, resulting as follows:

News of Petersburg

The Times-Dispatch Bureau,

5 Bollingbrook Street

(Telephone 1435).

Petersburg, Va., January 21.

At the meeting of the board of government of the Chamber of Commerce

last night, E. C. Kent was elected president of the chamber, to succeed

Hatcher S. Seward, who, after several years of efficient service, declined re-election. Other officers were elected as follows: Richard H. Mann, first vice-president; Paul S. Roper, second vice-president; William M. Martin, re-elected secretary. Matters of importance to the community, some of which may soon mature, were discussed. A letter was received from E. H. Mathewson, of the national department of agriculture, stating that he would certainly be here on Saturday to speak at the big meeting to be held in the interest of agriculture in the Southside section. He will speak on "Bright Tobacco

Culture."

Brilliant Church Marriage.

The marriage last evening at 6 o'clock in the Tabb Street Presbyterian

Church of Miss Nan Spotswood Jones

and Captain William A. Bond was an event of marked social interest, and was witnessed by a very large assemblage of Petersburg's fashionable people in full dress. The church decorations were palms, artistically and effectively arranged. The bride entered with and was given away by her brother,

John S. Jones. She was handsomely gowned in white charmeuse, covered with lace and trimmed with pearls. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms, and her flowers were lilies of the valley and bride roses. The ceremony was performed by her uncle, the Rev.

Charles Stevens, assisted by the Rev.

Charles R. Strubling and the Rev. C. B.

Bryan.

The bride's attendants were: Mrs.

John S. Jones, as matron of honor, gowned in yellow charmeuse, with violet trimmings, and carrying yellow

roses; and Miss Estelle Collier, as maid of honor, in white charmeuse, trimmed

in lace and pearls, and carrying pink roses. The bridegroom's attendant asbest man was his nephew, Allen Bond. The bride party entered and retired to the strains of wedding marches. The following were the ushers: Dr. H. G. Leigh, Ernest Jones, John Arthur Johnston, Harvey Seward, Edward Bond, E. H. Patterson, Robert Cuthbert, and Joseph W. Seward. Among the outside guests present were a number from Richmond, and other points. After an extended trip North, Mr. and Mrs. Bond will reside in Richmond.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. and the late Mayor William M. Jones and is a young woman of charming personality—very popular in the social circles of the city. The bridegroom stands high in the social and business circles of the city. For some time past he has held an important position in the auditing department of the Virginia Carolina Company, in Richmond.

A Delightful Affair.

The banquet of the A. P. Hill Camp, of Confederate Veterans, last night, given in celebration of General Lee's birthday anniversary, was a delightful and enjoyable affair, not only in respect to the elaborate menu served, but socially and intellectually. Veterans and guests to the number of 200 sat at the tables, and the waitresses were charming and pretty young women. Among the guests were many representatives of the Ladies' Memorial Association, the Daughters of the Confederacy, and ministers of the gospel. Present from Richmond were General J. Thompson Brown, General W. B. Freeman, Colonel D. A. Brown, and others. The principal speakers of the evening were former Congressman Lamb, of Richmond; Colonel T. M. Mason, of North Carolina, and James Anderson, of Springfield, Mass., who though a Northern veteran, is an honorary member of A. P. Hill Camp. The addresses were all appropriate to the occasion, and masterful in diction and sentiment.

to answer a charge of felony. By means of a false key Valentine had frequently secured entrance in the night-time to the residence of a family on Washington Street, and dined on the edibles he found. The matter was reported to the police, and a watch was set for the thief. Last night Lieutenant Donahue caught the negro as he was entering the building to get a good meal.

Two Deaths.

Mrs. Cora Wright Leonard, aged twenty-three years, wife of Thurman W. Leonard, died this morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, in Ettrick, after a brief illness. Besides her husband and parents, she leaves an infant and one brother, Howard Wright, of Ettrick. Mrs. Leonard is the fourth daughter Mr. and Mrs. Wright have lost by death in the last few years.

Mrs. Nannie Toole Rottger, wife of Edward J. Rottger, formerly of Petersburg, died yesterday in Baltimore. The body was brought to this city this afternoon and the burial was in Blandford Cemetery.

State Farmers' Union.

Mayor Cabañas will deliver the address of welcome to the State Convention of the Farmers' Union on February 3. Information leads to the belief that the convention will attract between 1,000 and 1,500 delegates and visitors to the city.

General News Notes.

At a meeting held yesterday at the Lee Public School it was decided to organize a local co-ordinate education league to work in behalf of a woman's university at Charlottesville.

Commonwealth's Attorney R. H. Mann has addressed a letter to all retail tobacco dealers in the city calling attention to the law governing the sale of cigarettes, tobacco, etc., to minors under sixteen years old. The law is to be enforced.

Marion King, a well-known young citizen of Chesterfield, is ill of typhoid.

Chihuahua, Mex., January 21.—"It soon will be shown that the United States has not waited in vain in the belief that the Huerta government is slowly crumbling," said General Francisco Villa to-day.

"With the northern division of the Huerta army imprisoned in the United States, and with General Jose Refugio Velasco's Federal troops trembling at Torreon, the only point they now hold in the north, it will not be long before the usurper Huerta will be swept away by public opinion. At first it was only our arms that brought us victories, but now the people of Mexico are convinced of the seriousness of the revolution. Our strength is growing daily. We are finding that popular approval is as effective as bullets. But we are not forgetting that bullets are still necessary. The fighting will continue. I am convinced that the prospective bettle near Torreon will knock another prod from under the tottering throne of Huerta. The Federals are aware that they must put up a vigorous fight or their cause is lost. Once we go south of Torreon every city between us and Mexico City will fall. The people there have been kept in ignorance of the extent of the revolution, and when they see our great numbers they will join us.

THRONE OF HUERTA SLOWLY CRUMBLING

Advocates of the electric needle for removing stubborn hairy growths now concede that a simple paste made with powdered delatone and water is fully as efficacious and is devoid of pain, while the cost is trifling. The delatone paste is left on the hairy surface about two minutes, and when it is rubbed off all traces of hair vanish. Washing leaves the skin soft, smooth and spotless. Be careful to see that it is delatone you get, or you may be disappointed with the result. (Advertisement.)

Chew Food Thoroughly

In these days of soft, mushy foods and quick meals, insufficient mastication of food is often responsible for stomach trouble, headache, biliousness, constipation, dull brains, and various other ills.

Generally these troublesome results can be avoided or corrected by having a regular daily ration of
